CHRISTMAS

GREETINGS

Gather round the festive tree, sing the songs of joy and cheer, be glad of heart and spirit, too . . .
it's Christmas! In the fine tradition of the season, we extend greetings, simple and sincere, to our friends and customers. Happy holidays, best wishes, and many, many thanks.

Christmas Day 1968

The magic of the Christmas season is laying its hold upon the land. On city streets silver bells ring calling on us to give help to those less fortunate. The tinsel, the lights and decorations, the holly wreaths are going up and tens of millions of children know that Santa Claus is coming to town. They hope that he will in some mysterious way visit their home in the shimmering silence of the night before Christmas.

This is a time for children, and it is a time too for all men and women in all lands to remember the wonder of the Lord's birth on the first Christmas nearly 2,000 years ago. It is the power of this happening that puts magic in this season and lends the light of hope and understanding to all the world's people.

Let this Christmas be for children—may it bring them the warmth of a fire, the smell of a tree, the excitement of waiting for Santa's visit. Let it bring visions of sugar plums on Christmas eve, and above all as the hour approaches, let it bring the warmth of knowing that the babe born in Bethlehem so long ago is very close to us all this night.

What is Santa carrying in his bag? All our best wishes for a happy holiday season, plus our sincere thanks for your confidence in us!

A Greeting

I salute you: There is nothing I can give you which you have not; but there is much, that, while I cannot give you, you can take... No heaven can come to us unless our hearts find rest in it today. Take Heaven... No peace lies in the future which is not hidden in the present. Take Peace... The gloom of the world is but a shadow; behind it, yet within our reach is joy. Take Joy... And so at this Christmas time, I greet you, with the prayer that for you, now and forever, the day breaks and the shadows flee away.

Fra. Giovanni, A.D. 1513

Carol Singing — Popular Christmas Custom

Caroling is the custom in many different customs connected with countries throughout the world. it as there are countries.
And, there are about as many Bagpipe music accompanies the carolers in (no, not Scotland)

Italy!

In England the carolers receive gifts for their efforts. "Gifts" of refreshments are often the case in America.

"Star-singers" is the name for groups of carolers in many nations. The term is taken from the pole they carry, which has a lighted star on top.

Rudyard Kipling, the author, was born Dec. 30, 1865.

SPORTSMEN'S CORNER

By BILL CHIBA

Arriving with the holiday season will be the 1969 New England Sportsmen's and Camping Show in Boston's War Memorial Auditorium on Saturday, Jan. 8th, continuing for 9 days through Jan. 26th.

Ken Harrelson, Red Sox hitting ace, will head the fabulous extravaganza. New dazzling equipment, ideas, innovations for the sporting and camping enthusiasts as well as an array of spectacular talent in an exciting stage and water show, and experts to give valuable pointers.

More than 300,000 persons will converge from all corners of New England to attend this annual colorful mecca of sporting interests ranging from hunting, fishing, scuba diving, archery, firearms, flying and parachuting, golfing, camping, travel, resorts, skiing, tobogganing, karate, snowmobiling, cycling and other activities.

This huge spectacle is three exciting shows in one—a combination of sports, camping and stage-water shows, making it the biggest indoor sports event of the year in New England.

Leading sports clubs in New England will be represented in the show, national and international makers of sporting paraphernalia will have exhibits of new equipment for fishermen, hunters, campers and other sports. Experts from these clubs will be present throughout the show to impart valuable advice and tips usually unavailable from other sources.

Once In A Life Time

John Taylor of Franklin and Raymond Hersey of East Andover, New Hampshire, had a very successful trip together on Nov. 23 and 24. It all started on Saturday when John shot a bobcat. On Sunday he got a 7-point, 150-lb. buck, and his partner shot a doe weighing 130 lbs. They were in the Tucker Mountain area of Andover. While John was heading back out of the woods to pick up a snow vehicle to haul out the deer, a bear appeared on the scene and Ray shot it.

A Fisherman's Dream

The Plano Moulding Co., of Plano, Ill., has come out with a tackle box that all boat fishermen have been looking for. The Plano Boat-Tote clamps on the gunwale of a boat, keeping it out of the way of the fisherman's feet and putting terminal tackle at his fingertips. It eliminates need for having lures with unprotected hooks hanging on the boat or lying on the seat.

The BOAT-TOTE box features include: adjustable hooks clamp on gunwale; adjustable straps allow box to open at any angle and accommodate any position on the boat; baits of all sizes hang from top; storage space for large baits, other equipment under middle divider tray; covered compartments for snaps, swivels, sinkers, jigs and small baits; convenient plier storage, snelled hook and lure holder. You still have time to order one from the Plano Co. for Christmas.

I wish to extend a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to the many readers of this column, Bill.

The Old Timer

"Conscience is that inner voice that warns you that the man in the unmarked car trailing you is a State Trooper."

FRIGID FISH

The hard-to-explain disappearance of game fish during the winter months can be most perplexing, especially when the fishin' itch in a guy's castin' arm doesn't respect a seasonal layoff.

For many fishermen, cold weather and lack of prospects are tolerated without too much complaint. But, ask the experts at Mercury Outboards, what's a man going to do when he still wants to go fishing, regardless of the elements?

It's simple, they say. Just bundle up and go!

Fish, being cold-blooded creatures, are permitted by nature to maintain bodily functions at a speed regulated by the surrounding temperatures. The colder it gets, the more sluggish they become, and the less food is required to sustain life.

Yet they do feed on a limited scale, and can be induced to hit a baited hook on occasion.

Drop your offering in the deepest holes, where the water will be warmest. Bottom springs, when known, are excellent spots. Fresh water entering from tributaries carries oxygen and stirs up the frigid lake in a localized area, creating another preferred fish location.

Use baits and lures as if fish were half asleep . . . not so much out of respect for the slumbering attitudes of the fish, but to give them a chance to catch up if they desire.

There's one alternative to this slow motion angling, observe the Mercury lads. Head for Florida or other parts south where Ol' Man Winter is a bit more lenient toward his fishin' brethren.

Holiday Yule Tree German Descent?

The Christmas tree, now almost a universal symbol, probably came to America from Germany, although tradition has it that Christmas trees originated in Egypt. The palm tree is supposed to put forth a branch every month, and a spray of this tree, with 12 shoots on it, was used in Egypt.

German writers mention the tree as early as 1605. The German prince Albert, consort of Queen Victoria, introduced the Christmas tree in England when he had a tree for his daughter.

AHS Select 12th Musical Production

Plans for this year's musical production at Agawam High have progressed with the selection of the show "How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying."

The award winning musical of the 1961 Broadway season will mark the 12th Broadway production to be presented by Agawam students since Mr. Davis has been at the school.

Miss Geraldine Schilling has served on the production staff for most of these times and will put the many varied resources of the Art Department to good use in the major undertaking. Mr. Louis Bale has also headed up the set construction and stage crew operations for quite a few of the productions.

Agawam High does not have a dramatic director this year; however, Miss Judith Bonkowski, Mrs. Mary Sypek and Mrs. Joanne Brown of the English department have agreed to help out in the dramatic aspects of the production. Choreography will again be handled by Dominique who has produced outstanding dance numbers for the past three musicals and chorus by Mrs. Mary Wuesthoff. Mrs. Jan Nowak, Mrs. Charles Heyl and Mr. Charles Donovan are among many other faculty members who will be assisting in the production.

The Broadway musicals were originally started as Glee Club

Dolls Thru' The Centuries More Than Just Playthings

Dolls have many personalities...not all soft, cuddly and lovable.

Dolls come in images of many modern-day gods and goddesses, including the doll that mimics the famous skinny English fashion model.

There are swaggering teen boy-dolls to match swinger girl dolls...grim-faced GI dolls complete with all the familiar, all-too-familiar, weapons of war.

But the modern-day doll is primarily a playtoy, to simulate the grand world of grown-ups, to let little girls, or little boys, escape the everyday world and its pressures. Not so, with dolls of olden times. They may have been doted on, and cradled, but they were given special respect not always given modern dolls.

Precious puppet of childhood days, the doll is one of the oldest of human institutions. In ancient remains of earlier societies, dolls of clay, wood, bone and ivory, were found in children's graves.

It is known that in earlier centuries, those dolls used as playthings were connected with im-projects at Agawam High but have been expanded in scope to include much larger participation as an all school activity.

In many aborigine groups, dolls are made as the image of a deity and are considered sacred. They are entrusted to the children as part of their religious instruction.

In Japan, dolls were created as "scapegoats"—they were dressed, and fed, and generally treated as though they were alive to ward off evil from the families' children.

Among the Hindus and Mohammedans where infant marriages prevail, elaborately-dressed dolls with many belongings, are presented to the girl at marriage.

In Africa, the use of dolls as toys is complicated by the fact that they are often used for magic rites and are often kept as household fetishes.

The word "wassail" is derived from the Old English waes hal—a toast meaning "be whole" or "be thou well."

The History Of Christmas Gifts

NEW YORK (NAPS) — While millions of Americans give flowers by wire, perfume by the bottle and even gems (by gosh!), few among those who give and receive the gifts this Christmas will realize what a long and delightful history the custom of gift-giving has.

It was the Three Wise Men who gave the first Christmas gifts in history, although the earliest Christians refused to exchange presents. To them, the custom was a heathen one — because gift-giving played a prominent role in many pagan festivals.

In time, they accepted the exchange of gifts as an expression of rejoicing — and legends about the bringers of gifts began to grow.

In time, they accepted the exchange of gifts as an expression of rejoicing — and legends about the bringers of gifts began to grow.

The jolly gent we know as St. Nick, for example, is based on the real-life St. Nicholas, bishop of Myra in Asia Minor (modern Turkey) in the fourth century. Legendary even in his own time for his generosity, and his love of children, he is said to have gone on many a mysterious journey carrying secret gifts to the poor. On one of these expeditions, so the story goes, he dropped a bag of gold down a chimney. It fell by accident into a stocking hung up to dry by the fire — and prompted generations of hopeful children to hang up their hosiery, too.

Giving to the poor remained a vital part of Christmas celebrations in the centuries to come. In England, on the day after Christmas, clergymen used to open the church alms-boxes and distribute the money to the needy. Later, it became customary to give boxes of money on that day to people who had served you during the year. Dec. 26 is still known as Boxing Day in Britain.

The custom of bestowing gifts on friends and family members was popularized in England by King Henry VII, whose services are used extensively during the Christmas season. Henry's granddaughter, Queen Elizabeth I, made the most of this custom, she depended on Christmas gifts to replenish her wardrobe, and made it very clear to courtiers that they had better come across handsomely on Christmas Day. Court records show that the Archbishop of Canterbury gave her $200 every Yule for clothes.

Court ladies presented her with the first silk stockings worn in Europe, and even the royal dustman (garbage collector) came through with two bolts of fine linen for the royal lingerie.

Father Christmas, as the English counterpart of Santa is called, rode high for another 40 years after the reign of Good Queen Bess. Then the Puritans took over. They abolished him and his gifts, and indeed all Christmas celebrations, as fit only for heathen.

The stern Puritans brought their distrust of Christmas merriment to New England's shores as well; in 1659, the observance of Christmas in Massachusetts became a penal offense!

On the other hand, fun-loving Dutch settlers had already brought "Sinter Klass" to New Amsterdam. Later, a German colony moved to Pennsylvania along with their giftbringer, Christkindlein — who gave us the name "Kris Kringle". Other immigrant groups contributed their own legends and customs of Christmas giving. And in 1822, a Presbyterian divinity professor named Clement C. Moore sat down and combined many of these elements into a rather well-known poem beginning "Twas the night before Christmas. . ."

The "Visit from St. Nicholas" described by Dr. Moore was modest in comparison to some of St. Nick's later trips. Americans have long been generous Yuletide givers. Seamen used to bring their families rare and costly presents gathered from the Orient: spices, silks, china and teakwood. St. Nicholas was the patron saint of sailors as well as children.

When it comes to flowers and other gifts, the ladies are not neglected. Though florists are especially busy during Christmas, many of them have a special arrangement whereby flowers can be sent to loved ones once a month. In this way — the holiday spirit can be enjoyed throughout the year by those closest to you. Any shop with an FTD emblem provides this delightful service.

Flowers are just one item in the well over $27 billion a year spent on Christmas presents of all kinds.

Many of these gifts are wrapped with the aid of Christmas seals, yet few Americans have any notion of when or where these originated. They were first used in Copenhagen, Denmark, in 1904 — the brainstorm of a postal clerk named Holboell, who dreamed them up as a benefit for a children's hospital.

The gift-giving customs of many lands form an interesting contrast to our own. Greek children rustle up their own gifts: on Christmas Day they go the rounds collecting raisins, walnuts, figs and sweets. In Newfoundland an important Christmas gift is — fish! Local fishermen fish for the church on Christmas Day, donating their catch to the parish.

Some countries enjoy Christmas giving so much that they do it twice: the French exchange gifts on New Year's Day, but the children are visited by Pere Noel on Christmas Eve. Italian children receive their main presents on January 6, but they and their parents draw for little gifts on Christmas Eve from an "Urn of Fate."

And Icelanders must hurry if they want to unwrap their presents Christmas morning. Almost the entire holiday must be spent in church services — for in Iceland they want to unwrap their presents of light on Christmas Day!

We are all familiar with the Christmas story, but how many remember the names of the three Wise Men? . . . Melchior, Gaspar and Balthazar!

Translate 'Adeste Fidelis' 120 Times

"Adeste Fidelis" (O Come, All Ye Faithful) is one of the best-known Christmas carols in the world. It has been translated into more than 120 languages and dialects.

Some scholars believe it may have been known to Francis of Assisi and that it might have been sung while the people gathered around the first creches.

Still others say that the great carol was written by S. Bonaventure, a contemporary of St. Francis, in the 13th century.

Be that as it may, it is affirmed that the carol changed through the years, and was popular in Germany and France as early as the 17th century.

The earliest recorded words and melody of "Adeste Fidelis" are found in "Cantus Diversi", a collection of hymns (1750) by John Francis Wade.

The carols, hymns and songs that so enrich our Christmas season today are the products of many countries and many centuries.

This beautiful music came to America with the early settlers.

The Germans brought Luther's hymn for children, "Away In A Manger." "God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen" came from England. The French gave us "Cantique de Noel" or "O, Holy Night."

American composers began early to fill the roster of Christmas favorites.

In 1730, Charles Wesley, younger brother of John Wesley, founder of the Methodist denomination, wrote "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing."

"It Came Upon A Midnight Clear" was composed in 1849 by Edmund H. Sears.

Creche Tableau Illustrates Nativity

We do not know when the first creche was set up as a tableau to illustrate the nativity, but church records indicate that St. Francis of Assisi received special permission from the Pope to reconstruct the scene in the Bethlehem stable.

Today the crib, surrounded by figurines of the Holy Family, the Three Wise Men, shepherds, angels and farm animals, is to southern Europe and Catholic countries what the brightly decorated Christmas tree is to America.

The Puritan Government banned the celebration of Christmas in England in 1643.

Christmas Rose Began With A Tear

When Christ was born in Bethlehem kings from far-away lands came bearing gifts of great rarity and value. Everyone within sight and sound of the Event came and brought gifts of one kind or another . . . the shepherds brought little new-born lambs as their humble offering.

Off to a corner, unnoticed, huddled a little shepherdess, named Madelon, who wept because she had no gift for the Baby.

As her tears fell to the stable ground a miracle came to pass: small, lovely blooms sprang up among the tears; Madelon quickly gathered them and ran to show the Child the beautiful flowers.

Little Jesus touched the blooms with his tiny fingers and behold! the petals flushed rosy pink! This was the Christmas rose.

'Tis said that to this day, every year, when Christmas comes (and not until that day) the Christmas Rose blooms abundantly, in celebration of the Holy Birthday.

The Christmas Rose in itself is a great gift for the World, as it was on that hallowed day, many, many years ago . . . as was the Holy Child, to all mankind, for all time.

Today's Christmas 'Bedlam' Far Cry from Little 'Bethlehem'

Carols blaring forth from stores' loudspeakers on a busy shopping street . . . mixed and mingling to a near cacaphony.

Corner Santa Clauses in many shapes and sizes ringing . . . tolling their bells, on street corners.

The noise of rock-and-roll from passing car-radios.

Shoppers, mostly youngsters, strolling by, a glazed look on their faces as they listen, rapt, to their pocket transistor radios.

The clatter of the "el" . . . the honking of impatient horns, the roar of the subway trains, the shrill call of children, the noise, the noise . . . the Bedlam of Christmas in a large American city, the year of our Lord, 1968.

A far cry from the beginnings of Christmas, in a little town of Bethlehem, almost 2000 years ago . . .

Later, in the 13th century in London, England, a hospital was built for care for the ill and indigent of the teeming city (even in the 13th century London had masses of people). The Hospital was called St. Mary of Bethlehem.

With the passing centuries the hospital became an asylum for the insane (using terms applicable to the times). Familiarity with the word "Bethlehem" had blurred the name until it was known as "Bethlehem."

By the time of Shakespeare the place was a horror, a symbol of abject squalor and inhumanity to the unfortunate who were consigned to its regions.

It was to take centuries more for men to regard mental illness as indeed an illness, not a condition which was the work of the Devil.

In the 16th century Bedlam was not a hospital administering healing to the suffering, it was a hell-hole where the inmates became lost, where their condition infinitely worsened by the cruellest neglect and abuse.

St. Mary must have wept!

As we of the 20th century move into this holy Season, let us keep in mind how, many, many years ago Bethlehem was corrupted into Bedlam, now the unearthly peace of that little town in Judea was mocked with agonizing conditions of man.

Let us remember the true Bethlehem, its real meaning, where long ago a star shone, a Child was born and angels sang of peace on earth and good will toward all men. Let us turn again to that true meaning.

Gold, Frankincense, Myrrh, Gifts for Princes

Gold of course has always been held in high favor as a gift for princes. The other two gifts, frankincense and myrrh are not as well known to modern man.

Long months were spent in harvesting these precious resins, which had to be brought to Palestine by caravan over long and hazardous journeys.

Thus it is little wonder that such rare and costly offerings were chosen as gifts befitting a king, for frankincense and myrrh carried the blessing of good health and religious favor.

Frankincense had for centuries been used by both the Egyptians and the Jews in religious rituals, and curative powers were attributed to it for the treatment of an astonishing variety of ailments.

Myrrh held a similar role of importance and was highly esteemed as an ointment and perfume, a ceremonial incense and an ingredient of embalming oils.

So highly treasured were these fragrant resins that pots and vases of ivory and alabaster were fashioned to preserve them.

Historians tell us that frankincense was burned to purify the air, and that to breathe the fragrance would comfort and refresh the spirit — much as smelling salts are used today.

A potion of frankincense was believed to be an antidote for hemlock poisoning, as well as a cure for leprosy.

A Christmas concert was given by a German orchestra for the American Occupation Forces in Germany. The GI in one seat fidgeted and fumed in boredom through Bach, Brahms and Beethoven. Then the orchestra played the melodious strains of Heilige Nacht (Holy Night) and the lad whispered, "Gee, what a relief to hear some good old American music."

We're wishing you an absolutely heavenly Christmas . . . bright as a star, carefree as a cloud.

MORUZZI RECEIVES AERONAUTICAL DEREE

AUBURN, Ala. — Captain Frank D. Moruzzi, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Moruzzi of 62 Suffield St., Agawam, has been graduated from Auburn (Ala.) with a B.S. degree in aeronautical engineering.

The captain studied under the Air Force Institute of Technology program which provides selected Air Force members resident training in scientific, engineering and other fields at civilian institutions and industrial organizations.

Captain Moruzzi is being reassigned to Eglin AFB, Fla., as a member of the Air Force Systems Command.

He has served a tour of duty in Vietnam and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, 11 Air Medals, the Purple Heart and the Air Force Commendation Medal. The captain completed 146 missions in the F-4C Phantom jet.

Captain Moruzzi was commissioned in 1957 through the aviation cadet program. He also served during the Berlin airlift.

A graduate of Agawam High School, the captain has studied at Western New England College, Springfield.

His wife is the former Marlyse S. Witter from France.

NEWMAN PARTICIPATED IN BEEF TRUST

USS ENTERPRISE at sea (FHTNC) — Storekeeper Third Class Robert E. Newman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Newman of 322 Meadow St., Agawam, participated in operation

"Beef Trust" aboard the nuclear-powered attack aircraft carrier USS Enterprise off the coast of Southern California.

The last major First Fleet exercise of the year, the eight-day exercise involved 28 ships and 31 air squadrons, including four Canadian units.

Designed to prepare U. S. units for the conditions encountered in Southeast Asia and throughout the Western Pacific, the exercise consisted of missile firing exercises, bombing practice, close air support and anti-submarine warfare.

Cruisers and destroyers fired their guns at the San Clemente Island Range and a target hull the ex-USS Jesse Rutherford, while guided missile ships tested their batteries against drone aerial targets in the Pacific Missile Range.

Carrier and land based aircraft flew strikes against the San Clemente Island Range, while the entire task force guarded against two U. S. submarines playing aggressors.

Chaparral and Vulcan are the names given to a new Army weapons system designed primarily for antiaircraft defense. The Chaparral consists of heat-seeking

Ancient Romans Hailed Dec. 25 As Sun's Birthday

The sun has always had special significance for man through the ages.

It is no coincidence, therefore, that the sun figures in the selection of December 25th as the birthdate of the Christ.

It is common knowledge that the true date of Christ's birth has not yet been determined . . . but have you wondered why the 25th of December was selected to celebrate Christ's birth?

For a long time the 6th of January was celebrated as the day of the Nativity, and was not changed to the earlier date until about 375 A.D.

According to the Roman Julian calendar, the 25th of December was reckoned the winter solstice, and the birthday of the sun!

This was the day that the light lengthened and the powers of the sun once again grew strong.

It was a symbolic promise that once again the heat of the sun would make the grass grow, the cattle thrive, and all crops flourish.

The Christian Church felt that by turning the 25th of December sun festival into a Holy Day, they could convert many non-believers from their worship of the sun to Him who is called the "Son of Righteousness."

Act of Mercy Began Robin's Christmas Legend

The robin, now considered a harbinger of spring, a century ago was a favorite Christmas motif on cards, and for decorative effect.

Legend connected the robin with Christ, and thus with Christmas.

The legend states that the bird, in trying to ease Christ's suffering on His way to the crucifixion, pulled a thorn from the crown. In doing so, a drop of blood fell on the robin's chest and remained there forever.

Comic robins, perky robins in all types of poses were pictured by the thousands of Christmas cards in the late 19th century.

Candles Light Up Man's Celebrations

It is difficult to imagine Christmastime without candles.

Long before Christ, man associated the light of the candle with his spiritual longings. The Old Testament refers to the candle often.

As civilization dawned, man came to guard the flames he discovered he could make by friction of sticks or flint. Crude torches let him hold the light a little longer and to lengthen his days so that he might pursue his labor and his quest for knowledge.

The Romans were probably the first to make candles, which they burned before the altars of their gods, to light their banquet rooms, and to light their pageants and carnivals. It is interesting to note that while pagan Rome used the candle for merry-making, the Christian martyrs used it to light the catacombs.

It was natural for Christians to adapt the candle to their way of life, for Christ had referred to Himself as the Light of the world. More, He had assured them that each Christian was a light.

The Middle Ages found the candle at its Zenith. Made of tallow, by the dipping process, the candle was widely used for light, on up till the 19th century.

The Medieval church made sure that candles were made of beeswax...an idea founded in the belief that bees came to earth directly from heaven. Throughout the Middle Ages it was common for swarms of bees to be cared for near religious establishments.

Some of the candles of the Middle Ages were thick and tall; they rose over the heads of the people and cast a fairly strong light in a royal hall, or cathedral. These huge candles weighed as much as 300 pounds.

The custom of putting lighted candles on the tree came from Martin Luther's time, when hazards of fire from candles was an accepted risk, part of life itself.

The idea of lights on the tree is still cherished by modern man. One of Albert Schweitzer's books tells of a Christmas Day in a steaming jungle when a dying man begged for a Christmas tree with candles on it.

It is traditional that every family in Ireland have a candle in the home as a symbol of faith, to welcome the Christ and to invite strangers (who may be the Holy Infant with an earthly disguise).

In Italy a Christmas candle is kept burning in front of each creche during the Yule Season.

In Spain, the Christmas candle is placed over the doors of the faithful.

The Little Match Girl

A CHRISTMAS STORY

One December day, a poor little girl trudged along a busy city street through cold, deep snow. She wore no shoes but on one foot she wore one man's large slipper which she had found in a trash-can. Her feet were red and raw in the bitter cold.

In her apron she carried many boxes of matches which she tried to sell to passersby.

The little girl was not having any luck, but she was afraid to go home, for her father had said he would beat her if she came home without money.

Now it was getting colder, the snow was coming down harder, a wind was whipping her threadbare scarf against her cheek.

She huddled in a corner between two buildings, trying to get warm.

She took a match from her apron and lighted it, to warm her numb fingers. How brightly it sputtered! In its light she seemed to see a big warm stove with pots bubbling happily.

But when the match burned out the beautiful scene disappeared.

She struck another match . . . and another, and each time another lovely scene took shape before her eyes... tall taper candles which seemed to grow longer, rising higher.

The candles rose higher, until they became stars in the sky; then one of them fell.

"Oh!" she said to herself, "that falling star means someone is dying."

She struggled to light another match, then another . . . and suddenly, right in the midst of the bright glow was her dear mother who had died when the little girl was just a 3-year-old.

"Mother!" the little girl cried. "Mother! Please take me with you!"

Her mother gathered her into her arms, and together they rose high up to the sky, so high, there were angels hovering near, and the little girl sighed with joy.

In the morning, when busy shoppers hurried by they saw the little match girl huddled on the hard sidewalk, burned matches about her. She seemed to be sleeping, and a smile was on her lips.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Lawrence Cunningham, Field Rep.

1. A disabled person under age 21 needs only 1½ years work to collect social security disability benefits.
2. A parent who cares for the children of their disabled or divorced children can gain social security coverage.
3. There are over 800 social security offices in the United States and its territories.
4. Widows and divorced widows between ages 50 and 60 who are totally disabled may collect disability under social security.
5. Social Security pays more funds to students between ages 18-22 than all other sources of student aid.
6. A provision of the social security act is that widows can collect benefits at age 60.
7. Dependent widowers can collect social security benefits as early as age 50 if totally disabled.

8. There are at least 60 medicare claims offices in the United States and a list can be obtained from your nearest social security office.

9. Medicare will not pay for services furnished by immediate relatives or members of the patient's household.

10. Hospital insurance of medicare will help pay for a bed in a semi-private room (2-4 beds) and all meals.

11. Medical insurance of medicare will pay for 100 home health visits in each calendar year: if confined at home; your doctor determines you need health care; and your doctor periodically reviews your home health plan.

12. Hospital insurance of medicare will pay for up to 100 home health visits for up to a year after your most recent discharge from a hospital or participating extended care facility.

Realism Reflected At Jerusalem

In the Middle East, where Christ lived, Christmas has a touch of realism. The patriarch comes from Jerusalem with a troop of cavalry in gorgeous array. The service lasts from 10 p.m. until long after midnight.

After the reading of the gospel the clergy and congregation leave the church and journey to the Grotto of the Nativity.

My Beat — A.H.S.

Jo-Ann Della-Giustina

Little girls in pink dresses, little boys in suspenders, boy scouts and teddybears will fill the AHS cafeteria tonight from 8-11 as the senior class holds the annual Kid Party. This party will be one of the last times, beside the banquet and graduation, that the senior class will be together as a group. Dressing and acting as little kids again comes at a time when seniors are applying to and being accepted to or rejected from the colleges of their choice and are worrying about their future, be it in college, in work or marriage.

The night will be full of fun and music by the Dutchmen from Longmeadow. The senior class officers and other members of the senior class have been preparing for the Kid Party.

Ancient Christian Church Looks Like Fortress

The oldest church in Christianity is reputed to be the church of the Nativity, built upon the spot where the stable stood. It was erected by Emperor Constantine the Great, in 330 A.D.

Yule Stories Span Many Years, Lands

Did you know that the first Christmas tree erected in a church in U. S., in 1851 shocked its Cleveland congregation. It was considered too heathenish!

America gave the world its most Beloved Christmas plant—the poinsettia. The plant is a native of tropical America.

Bayberry candles, which are said to foretell good luck for the coming year if they burn bright at Christmas, were first made by early settlers in America. They dipped bayberry branches in wax and burned them during the holidays.

The story is told that over a hundred years ago, a parish priest in Salzburg, Austria, returning late one night from administering last rites to a dying woman, was awed by the particular majesty of the still, sparkled-with-stars night; he went home, wrote the lovely, haunting words of "Silent Night, Holy Night." With his organist, Franz Gruber, playing the great music on his guitar, the Father Joseph Mohr, first introduced the strains of this popular hymn to a small congregation in Austria.

A churchman, John Pierpont, composed the gay Christmas song, "Jingle Bells," which has been popular for over a century.

The number of mince pies you taste at Christmas indicates the number of happy months you'll have during the coming year, according to an old English belief.

For three centuries following His birth, Christ's nativity was celebrated at various times in January, March, April, May, September, and October by Christian groups.

December 14, 1799 — George Washington, on his deathbed, said to his doctor, "I thank you for your attention; you had better not take any more trouble about me, but let me go off quietly."

The church looks like a fortress. Its original stately portal has been walled up and replaced by a low and narrow entrance. There was a reason for this. In the first place, it compels the many pilgrims to bow before they enter. In the second place it was designed to keep the infidels from riding in on horseback or camel.

The interior of the church is dignified and simple, set off by beautiful Corinthian columns of native red sandstone. The roof is of massive oak. Silver lamps burning olive oil are suspended on gold and silver chains from the beams.

A silver star, fastened to a simple altar with silver nails, marks the exact spot where the Infant Jesus was born.

Three steps lead down to a small cave-like recess, the Chapel of the Manger. Beautiful tapestries and rugs are draped across the walls. Fifteen silver lamps are kept burning eternally in honor of Him, Who Christians believe, even today, is the light of the world.

Ceremonies 'round World Celebrate Twelfth Night

Twelfth Night, or Epiphany, is marked with many customs, ceremonies and legends throughout the world. French and Swiss children, for example, look forward to the pastry they receive on that day, in which a bean, coin or china figure is hidden. Whoever gets the prize, is crowned king of the family.

Epiphany means "appearance" and commemorates the visit of the Three Wise Men to the Infant Jesus. Their arrival was proof to believers that Christ the Saviour was born.

During the Middle Ages, Epiphany or Twelfth Night was commemorated with plays presented in churches. Solemn observances largely disappeared in Elizabethan England, and this became a time for revelry.

Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night"

Toys Part of Human Living Long Before 'Civilization'

Where did the toys that children love so much such as dolls, kites, blocks, etc....come from?

Records and archeological excavations show that children have been playing with dolls, and many other toys we still see today, since many thousands of years ago.

The Egyptians were perhaps the first to have dolls. These were not idols, they were strictly items to entertain the children.

Kites originated in the Orient. At one time kite flying was a national sport in China.

Blocks, which were once called building bricks first appeared minus any decoration. Most were somewhat larger than the average ones today.

Generally as soon as something new appears for adults, it is duplicated in miniature for children. It was not too many years after the first appearance of the locomotive that a child's replica was designed. The earliest steam engine, however, far preceded this...records show a reference to it as far back as 150 years before the birth of Christ.

The sling shot, used by men as a weapon, and referred to in the Bible as David's weapon, has been a toy for centuries, too.

Children's tastes have changed little since ancient times. A look at the toy collection in the British Museum would prove that. In fact, it would not be advisable to take the children there before Christmas — they'd find too many toys to ask for!

CARNIVAL

The carnival held jointly between the Agawam and Southwick Posts at Leeds Hospital was a complete success according to Past Commanders Toimi Tammi, Tet Giminnanni, Brady Snyder and Frances and Adam Link who helped service the hospital. Everyone there raved about the Christmas cookies made especially for this occasion by Katy Dickinson, who donated not only her time, service but all ingredients as well. To make sure all was in readiness the puzzle and cookies were delivered the night before.

DECORATION SALE

Dec. 13 — Friday night was a beautiful evening with a happy, warm, friendly atmosphere and Christmas decorations of all kinds and descriptions filled the VFW Home. Those of you who were unable to make this sale missed some unusual and glamorous decorations. Many folks remained to eat clams and other goodies served by Venetta Snyder and Katy Dickinson. The Ladies of the Auxiliary take turns so come on down and help build up our worthy funds.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Dec. 15th — Bright - faced youngsters waited and watched joyously until a red-faced jovial SANTA CLAUS (in the shape of Comdr. Edward Harpin) arrived at the VFW Childrens' Christmas Party at the Agawam Motor Lodge. Running around getting the children as they arrived were a nimble clown and an old hobo who normally are quite dignified and correct as Sr. Vice-Comdr. Ed Netkovich and QM Bib Bissonnette. The antics of these two NON-PROFESIONALS? — kept the group of children and their parents in stitches. They behaved in such a manner as to arouse much amusement and laughter. While mimicking the magician their facial expressions were really something to see. The whistles and balloons they distributed kept the kids busy until the issuance of gift bags to each and every one of them. Candy canes, filled candy stockings, fruits, cookies and gifts filled the bags and every child seemed extremely happy with the soda, cookies, and ice cream that were served. . . second helpings could be had. The skilled magician, Robert Switzer kept them entranced for another hour with his sleight of hand tricks. He called for participants from the audience and many children answered the call. He took two ladies, Beulah Hocker and Ethel Ruele for the great act of TYING them together and they would be there STILL had he not released them.

The musical compositions rendered vocally were lead by Bib Bissonnette who sang with gusto. Accordion selections were by Joseph Dynia and Mathew Bonk. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. Hooper and their four children. Mr. Hooper has just returned from Vietnam and a guest at the Motel.

Each child was given a number and the lucky ones, Tom Dias and Gregory Hooper were given a sled each. A beautiful Christmas centerpiece was won by Mrs. Richard Adelman who immediately relinquished it as this was a decoration she had made and donated. . . lucky this time was P. C. Brady Snyder.

Working on decorating, packing gifts and putting up the tree on Saturday evening were Chairmen Ed Netkovich and Katy Dickinson, Co-chairman Anna D. Bissonnette, President Emily Dias, Past President Venetta Snyder, Ricky Adelman, Donna Hulse, Bib Bissonnette, Gus Hocker, Qzzie Inman, Roland and Ethel Ruele, Jim, Anna and Kathy Hayes. On Sunday came the breakdown and clean-up which included the same group. We wish to thank all who helped in any way and those who donated fruit, cookies, sleds, tree and the use of the hall. May the GOOD LORD treat you well. . .

Kissing Ball Old Custom

Among the more popular aspects of a secular celebration is the Kissing Ball.

Many years ago every home featured at least one of these beautiful decorations, hung from an archway or chandelier.

The Kissing Ball was sometimes a pomander, sometimes a blown egg, sometimes a ball of cotton.

The ball is brightly painted or gilded, wrapped with ribbon and braid, and set with mock jewels, sparkling beads and sequins.

A ribbon suspends two or three in place and a sprig of mistletoe is secured at the top.

Young ladies who pass beneath may expect a kiss from some daring swain who waits nearby.

States Claim Yule Plants

Santa Claus, Indiana is the most famous of all towns bearing names associated with Christmas.

Except for a coincidence, the name of the town may have been any of a number of less colorful names.

Originally, the name desired was Santa Fe, but officials in Washington suggested the town be given another name, since there was already a Santa Fe in New Mexico.

On Christmas Eve, 1882, the townspeople gathered to select another name, but one name after another was rejected, until "Santa Claus" strode into the meeting to get warm. He was in costume, and with his arrival everyone knew what the name of the town would be—Santa Claus, Indiana!

Country's Freedom Christmas Gift, Too

The foundation for the preservation of the freedom to celebrate such Christian beliefs as Christmas — this was the gift to our country on that very day in December 1776.

It happened when George Washington and his men won the battle at Trenton, Pa. That was the beginning of a long line of victories that eventually led to ultimate victory and total independence.
